FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

RESPONDENT Taige Bybee MUR 5333

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter was generated by a complaint filed with the Federal Election Commission by Scott Clayton. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1)

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Complaint and other available information

The complaint alleges that Taige Bybee made excessive contributions to John Swallow for Congress ("Committee") The complaint listed Taige Bybee as contributing $2,000 to the Committee The Committee disclosed the receipt from Taige Bybee of $1,000 on March 31, 2002, which was designated for the Republican party convention, and $1,000 on June 26, 2002, which was designated for the primary election As reported on the Committee's disclosure reports, therefore, Taige Bybee's contributions are within the limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A)

The available information indicates that Taige Bybee's contributions were made by checks drawn on the account of Winterfox, LLC ("Winterfox") The Winterfox checks were attributed to Taige Bybee and several other persons, as set forth in the chart below. Winterfox is a limited liability company ("LLC") identified in public records as an active LLC organized in Utah.

Check drawn on account	Check date	Amount	Attributed persons ($1,000 each)
Winterfox, LLC	3/28/02	$5,000	Taige Bybee, Evan Bybee, Tamra Bybee, Kara Davis, Nicaïl Bybee
Winterfox, LLC	6/28/02	$5,000	Taige Bybee, Evan Bybee, Tamra Bybee, Nicaïl Bybee, Brenn Bybee

In the first instance, Winterfox wrote a $5,000 check to the Committee dated March 28, 2002, signed by Evan Bybee, with a memo line reading "From Evan, Tamra, Taige, Kara, Nicaïl $1000 ea," i.e., the four Bybees and Kara Davis. The Committee sent a letter to Winterfox, dated April 4, 2002, expressing thanks for the contribution and then stating.

The strict Federal Election Commission regulations [prohibit] making contributions on behalf of someone else to federal election campaigns. We must refund this money to you within thirty (30) days unless you can establish in writing that the contribution came from personal funds of a corporate drawing account, such as a draw against salary, wages, dividends, etc. Please confirm that such was indeed the case with this check by signing below. ..

The letter provides fields for the signature, occupation, employer and date of each Bybee and of Kara Davis. The completed fields contain signatures, occupations and employers for all five individuals dated April 10 and 11, 2002. One of the five, Tamra Bybee, listed Winterfox as her employer, Taige Bybee and Nicaïl Bybee listed other entities; and Evan Bybee and Kara Davis listed "self." The Committee did not disclose Winterfox as the employer of any of the five individuals.

The available information also indicates that Winterfox wrote a $5,000 check to the Committee dated June 28, 2002, that was signed by Evan Bybee and contained a memo line reading "1,000 ea Evan, Tamra Bybee, Taige Bybee, Nicaïl Bybee, Brenn Bybee," i.e., the four Bybees noted above and Brenn Bybee. The available information does not include any

3 B. Law on contributions by LLCs, corporations and partnerships

4 The Commission's regulations establish two possible treatments for contributions by 5 business entities that are recognized as limited liability companies under the laws of the State in 6 which they are established. 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(1) The treatment depends on how the firm
7 elects to file with the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Id. at 110.1(g)(2) If the contribution is 8 from an LLC filing with the IRS as a partnership pursuant to 26 C.F.R. § 301.7701-3, or from 9 one that fails to make an election, it shall be treated as a contribution from a partnership pursuant 10 to 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(e). Id. If the contribution is from an LLC electing to file with the IRS as a 11 corporation, the contribution is prohibited 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(3) An 12 LLC that makes a contribution pursuant to this provision shall, at the time it makes the 13 contribution, provide information to the recipient committee as to how the contribution is to be 14 attributed, and affirm to the recipient committee that it is eligible to make the contribution
15 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(5).

16 The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), prohibits 17 corporations from making contributions in connection with any election and prohibits any 18 candidate or political committee from knowingly accepting or receiving any such contributions 19 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a). In addition, section 441b(a) prohibits any officer or director of any 20 corporation from consenting to any contribution by the corporation The Commission has 21 recognized, however, limited circumstances in which a corporate employee may make a 22 contribution drawn on a corporate account, specifically, a nonrepayable corporate drawing 23 account established to permit an employee to draw against her salary, profits or other

1 compensation. See Campaign Guide for Congressional Candidates and Committees (2002), 2 page 21, FEC Record, September 1978, page 1.¹ Contributions may not be made from the 3 general treasury fund of corporations. See 2 U S C. § 441b(a), cf. FEC v Massachusetts Citizens
4 for Life, 479 U.S. 238, 241 (1986).

5 A contribution by a partnership shall be attributed to the partnership and to each partner
6 in one of two ways: 1) in proportion to his or her share of the profits, according to instructions 7 which shall be provided by the partnership to the political committee or candidate; or 2) by 8 agreement of the partners, as long as only the profits of the partners to whom the contribution is 9 attributed are reduced (or losses increased), and these partners' profits are reduced (or losses 10 increased) in proportion to the contribution attributed to each of them 11 C.F.R § 110.1(e). A
11 contribution by a partnership shall not exceed the Act's limitations on contributions, and no
12 portion of such contribution may be made from the profits of a corporation that is a partner. Id

13 C. Analysis of contributions

14 Winterfox, an LLC, wrote $10,000 in contribution checks to the Committee. Winterfox 15 attributed this amount to Taige Bybee and several other persons. No contributions were 16 attributed to the LLC itself. The threshold question regarding LLC contributions is whether the 17 LLC is to be treated as a corporation or as a partnership, which depends on whether the LLC
18 elected federal income tax treatment as a corporation See 11 C F R § 110 1(g) The available
19 information does not indicate whether Winterfox elected tax treatment as a corporation

¹ The only place in the Act or the Commission's regulations that specifically addresses the making of contributions through nonrepayable corporate drawing accounts is in the context of contributions to separate segregated funds See 11 C F R § 102 6(c)(3) This regulation provides that a contributor may write a check that represents both a contribution and payment of dues or other fees that must be drawn on the contributor's personal checking account or on a "non-repayable corporate drawing account of the individual contributor " Id See also Explanation and Justification, 48 Fed Reg 26,297 (June 7, 1983)

1 The Winterfox checks on their face attribute the contributions among several individuals,
2 but it does not appear that the LLC affirmed to the Committee that it is eligible as an entity to 3 make the contributions in the first place. See 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(5). Instead, the Committee's 4 letter in response to the first Winterfox contribution check invites the attributed individual 5 contributors to categorize the contributions as coming from "personal funds of a corporate 6 drawing account, such as a draw against salary, wages, dividends, etc." Each individual 7 contributor appeared to agree with this categorization by signing in the space provided. While 8 the Commission permits contributions from corporate employees drawn on nonrepayable 9 corporate drawing accounts, see supra, the contributions here do not appear to be drawn on such 10 accounts. First, the checks appear to be drawn on the general treasury account of an LLC, no 11 account name is indicated on the checks relating to a possible nonrepayable drawing account.
12 Second, the attributed individual contributors may not even be employees of the LLC. As noted 13 above, only a single attributed contributor listed Winterfox as her employer.

14 Thus, if Winterfox has elected federal income tax treatment as a corporation, its 15 contribution checks may constitute impermissible corporate contributions. If, in the alternative, 16 Winterfox is treated as a partnership, its checks to the Committee constitute contributions from 17 the LLC itself as well as from the "partners" of the LLC. See 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(e).² As for the 18 "partners" of Winterfox, public records from Utah identify Taige Bybee and G. Evan Bybee as 19 members of Winterfox. By analogy, these members may be the "partners" to which the LLC
20 contributions may be attributed if the LLC is treated as a partnership. See 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(e) 21 (such attribution shall be in proportion to each partner's share of the profits, or, by agreement of 22 the partners, as long as only the profits of the partners to whom the contribution is attributed are

² Persons with an ownership interest in an LLC are called "members" rather than "partners." See Utah Revised Limited Liability Company Act, Utah Code Ann. § 48-2c-102(14).

1 reduced and these partners' profits are reduced in proportion to the contribution attributed to 2 each of them) Attributing the LLC contributions among the members/partners appears to result
3 in excessive contributions on the part of those individuals Winterfox's $10,000 in contributions
4 is attributed $5,000 each to Taige Bybee and Evan Bybee Thus, there is reason to believe that 5 Taige Bybee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

6 Finally, there appear to be contributions made in the name of another whether Winterfox
7 was treated as a corporation or as a partnership. The Act prohibits contributions made in the 8 name of another person and prohibits a person from knowingly permitting her name to be used to 9 effect such a contribution. See 2 U.S.C. § 441f If Winterfox was treated as a corporation, then 10 it made contributions in the names of the various individuals to whom the contributions were 11 attributed. If Winterfox was treated as a partnership, then the attributed partners made 12 contributions in the names of the other individuals who are not partners. In addition, the various 13 attributed individual contributors may have knowingly permitted their names to be used to effect
14 the LLC contributions on their behalf. See 2 U.S.C. § 441f. Therefore, there is reason to believe 15 that Taige Bybee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f.
